

FITNESS FOR WORK POLICY

Permacast is committed to ensuring all employees are fit for work whilst undertaking activities required fulfilling the requirements of their position. The company's employment policies provide a framework for the provision of employment in accordance with relevant legislation and principles of mutual obligation and respect. It is the responsibilities of the employee to undertake his/her work in a manner that complies with the employee's duty of care.

"Fit for Work" means that an individual is in a physical, mental and emotional state which enables the employee to perform his/her assigned duties effectively, in a manner which does not threaten his/her own or others wellbeing. It is essentially the responsibility of the employee to manage personal factors, which impact on his/her ability to perform the required work, unimpaired and to the full extent of his/her capability.

At all times, an employee's fitness for work shall be determined by their Direct Supervisor or Manager, either through observation of the employee or through recognised methods of testing.

In support of this policy, the Company shall:

- Maintain a work environment and system of work, which does not adversely impact on the employee's health and which recognises the need to ensure the fitness of employees to perform their duties
- Utilise a range of strategies to monitor employee fitness for work and operate in accordance with relevant legislation and Codes of Practice

Where fitness for work impairment factors is within the control of the employee and the employee renders himself/herself unfit for work, the matter shall be dealt with in accordance with the PERMAcast code of conduct.

The objectives of this policy and supporting procedures shall be clearly communicated to all employees and contractors.

Signed
